OBITUARIES

Sandy Ridge:

Sister America Martin departed this life March 6, 1950. She was born February 10, 1865, making her stay on earth 85 years and 28 days. She was a member of Sandy Ridge Primitive Baptist Church for 62 years. She was a faithful member and served as Mother for a number of years. She would often in her testimony say she would speak now and express her love and peace for a time would come when all will come to see her and she could not tell you she was in peace and loved everybody. She also bore the mark of a Christian. She would always salute the saints with a holy kiss.

She was a civic worker in her community. She had to her credit 35 white children, 81 colored.

She leaves to mourn her loss 2 daughters, 4 sons, 31 grandchildren, and 8 great grandchildren.

A precious one is gone, a voice we loved is stilled, a place is vacant in our home which can never be filled.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

—o—

Art. 1. Of God and the Holy Trinity we believe in one true and living God who rules all things after the council of His own will and He created all things is infinite in power, wisdom, knowledge and goodness, eternal, immortal, invisible and unchangeable and that this God has revealed

Himself in His word under the character of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and that these are one, and that these are three that bear witness in earth, the water the spirit and the blood and that these agree in one.

Art. 2. Of the Holy Scripture, we believe that the Holy Scriptures of Old and New Testaments are the written word of God, and are a sufficient rule of faith and practices; that they were given by inspiration of God, and are profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction and for instruction in righteousness, and they contain all things necessary to be known for the salvation of men and women.

Art. 3. Of the atonement we believe Christ died and made a complete atonement for all who ever did, does now or ever, will believe in His name, and that all who are finally saved were given to Christ in convent of the Father before the world, was that they show forth His praise.

Art. 4. Of foreknowledge, election and predestination, we believe that all of whom God did foreknow, He did also predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son; that God elected according to His foreknowledge through sanctification of the spirit into obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ all who are finally saved, reserved in Heaven for all true saints, and that none come to Christ only whom He loved with an everlasting love and in time called to everlasting glory.

Art. 5. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.

Art. 6. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in his own free will and ability.

Art. 7. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by imputed righteousness of Christ.

Art. 8. We believe that God's elect will be called, converted, regenerated and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

Art. 9. We believe that the saints shall preserve in grace and not finally fall away.

Art. 10. We believe that Baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ and that true believers are the only proper subjects of the ordinances and that the true mode of baptism is by immersion. We believe in washing the saint's feet.

Art. 11.We believe in the resurrection of the dead, and general judgement.

Art. 12. We believe the punishment of the wicked will be eternal and the joy of the righteous everlasting.

Art. 13. We believe that no minister has the right to administer the ordinances only such as are regularly called and have come under the hands of the presbytery.

RULES OF THE DECORUM

—o—

1. The association shall be opened and closed with praise and prayer.

2. The moderators and clerks shall be chosen by the suffrage of the members present.

3. Only one person thus speaking at a time, who shall rise from his seat and address the moderator.

4. The person thus speaking shall not be interrupted in his speech by any except the moderator, until he is done speaking.

5. He shall strictly adhere to the subject and in no wise reflect on the person who spoke before, so as to make remarks on his lips, failings or imperfections, but shall fairly state the matter as best he can,so as to convey his idea.

6. No person shall abruptly break off or absent himself from the association without leave obtained from it.

7. No member of the Association shall have the liberty of laughing or whispering during the sitting or in time of public speech.

8. No member of the association shall address another in any other appelation than that of Brother.

9. The moderator shall not interrupt any member in his speech nor prohibit him from speaking until he gives his light on the subject except he breaks the rules of the decorum.

10. The names of the several members of the association shall be enrolled by the clerk and called over as the association thinks proper.

11. The moderator shall be entitled to the same privilege of speech as other members, provided the chair is filled.

12. Any member who shall willfully and knowingly break any of these rules shall be reproved by the association as it may think proper.

CHURCH GOVERNMENT

—o—

1. It shall be the duty of the church to meet monthly in conference. Each male member, without some lawful excuse, shall be present, and in the absence of the pastor, shall choose a moderator whose duty it shall be to open its doors for the reception of new members.

2. Take up reference, the oldest the first in order.

3. It shall be the duty of each member to vote in all cases and a majority shall rule, except when touching on fellowship.

4. No motion shall claim the attention of the moderator without being seconded.

5. Every motion made and seconded shall come under the observation of the church unless it be withdrown by the member who made it.

6. Every member who speaks shall rise from his seat and address the moderator, and shall not be interrupted while speaking unless he departs from his subject.

7. No member shall speak more than three times on the same subject, without leave from the church.

8. No member shall have the liberty of talking or whispering in time of public speaking, nor cast reflection upon the speaker, but shall adhere strictly to the subject.

9. No member shall absent himself from the conference without leave from the moderator.

10. The moderator shall have the same privilage of speaking as any other member, provided the chair is filled, and he shall not vote unless the conference is equally divided.

11. If any member shall fail to attend three regular meetings in succession without some lawful excuse, he or she shall be under the censorship of the church.

12. It shall be the duty of the members in this union not to commune, nor take the Lord's Supper with those not of this faith—Luke xxii 17. Who believe not in footwashing—John xiii 8. Those found not obeying these rules shall be under the censorship of the church.

13. We will not receive a member from any other church in the union except on certificate of good standing and in full fellowship with the church from which member came except it be impossible to obtain; then proceed as for confession of faith.

14. No church in this union shall hear a minister after having been silenced by legal conference whose moderator shall be the moderator of the association.

15. Male members shall be the only legal debators in any conference in this union.

16. It shall be the duty of the moderator to see that these rules are carried out.

17. Any amendment to this form of government may be made by two-thirds of the members present voting.

18. The Moderator and Clerk shall remain in office until their successors are elected.

Elder H. E. Kellum, Moderator
Elder Vallie Hylton, Clerk.
